TERRY PEGULA | Owner

Terry Pegula is a self-made success story, rising from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry and one of very few professional sports owners to operate franchises in multiple sports.

On Feb. 22, 2011, Terry and Kim Pegula, who had previously been season ticket holders, realized their dream of owning a hockey franchise by purchasing the NHL's Buffalo Sabres. They followed up their commitment to hockey by purchasing the AHL's Rochester Americans later that year, restoring a longtime affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks.

Together with Kim, Terry added another franchise to their Buffalo holdings on Oct. 10, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Pro Football Hall of Famer Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. and become the second owners in the storied history of the Buffalo Bills.

Terry serves as CEO of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions toward diversity in the NFL. In addition to the Sabres and Bills, Terry and Kim's ownership also extends to the NLL's Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks.

Raised in Carbondale, Pennsylvania, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University as a math major and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program with a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, Texas. He later joined Felmont Oil Co. as an Area Engineer, a decision that brought him to Olean, New York in 1975.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc., which continues to be active today. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy. JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top-producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention on his love of sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State and helping to form the Big Ten Hockey Conference.

The Pegulas then began construction of a multipurpose ice complex and opened LECOM Harborcenter in 2014. The more than $200 million dollar, personally financed complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two NHL-size hockey rinks, training facilities, four restaurants, a full-service Marriott Hotel and parking. The combination of KeyBank Center and LECOM Harborcenter have allowed Buffalo to be a center for hockey, hosting the 2016 NHL Draft, NHL Combine, 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship and the 2019 Men's NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition to overseeing the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh and his business operations in Boca Raton, Florida. Terry and Kim have five children between them: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew.

KIM PEGULA | Owner & President

Kim Pegula is Owner and President of both the Buffalo Sabres and Buffalo Bills and is President and CEO of Pegula Sports & Entertainment (PSE). She is the first female president of both an NHL and NFL team, overseeing the day-to-day business operations of each franchise.

Kim and her husband Terry purchased the Sabres on Feb. 22, 2011 and the AHL's Rochester Americans later that year, restoring a longtime affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks. On Oct. 8, 2014, Kim and Terry realized a long-time dream when they became only the second owners of the Bills. The Pegulas' sports ownership also extends to the Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks of the NLL.

Kim is co-chair of the NHL's Executive Inclusion Committee and currently serves on the board of directors for the Hockey Hall of Fame. She also serves on the NFL's Workplace Diversity Committee and is committed to ensuring that diversity is a priority in both leagues. Kim's NFL involvement extends to the league's Super Bowl and Major Events Advisory Committee, Business Ventures Committee, and NFL Foundation Committee.

Kim launched PSE in 2014, creating a management company that oversees the business operations across all Pegula-owned entities and sports teams. PSE expanded its reach later that year with the opening of LECOM Harborcenter, a more than $200 million multipurpose facility anchored by two NHL-size ice rinks and a Marriott Hotel franchise. PSE has helped attract several major events to Buffalo since its inception, including the NHL Scouting Combine, 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship and 2019 NCAA Men's Frozen Four, as well as a variety of stadium and arena concerts.

For their efforts, Kim and Terry have been recognized with the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL and their involvement in the Buffalo community landed the Pegulas on the Buffalo Business First Most Influential People list. PSE has also been honored with several NYS Emmy Awards for sports content and was named as one of Buffalo's Best Places To Work.

In addition to their experience in professional sports, Kim and Terry have been committed to the growth of sports at the collegiate level. In 2010, they donated $102 million for the creation of the Pegula Ice Arena at Penn State University. The facility allowed Penn State to create an NCAA Division I hockey program. Kim also supported Houghton College with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex, allowing Houghton's athletic department to become a Division III program.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York and Kim served on Governor Andrew Cuomo's Reopening Advisory Board for New York State.

Born in Seoul, South Korea on June 7, 1969, Kim was adopted at the age of 5 by Ralph and Marilyn Kerr and moved to Fairport, New York, a suburb of Rochester. She attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew. Jessica competes on the Women's Tennis Association Tour.

KEVYN ADAMS / General Manager

Kevyn Adams was named the ninth general manager in Buffalo Sabres franchise history on June 16, 2020. The 2021-22 season will mark his second as general manager and seventh overall with the franchise.

A native of Clarence, New York, Adams originally joined the Sabres' organization in 2009 as player development coach, a role he held for two seasons before serving as an assistant coach during the 2011-12 and 2012-13 campaigns.

Beginning in 2013, Adams was instrumental in building The Academy of Hockey program at LECOM Harborcenter from its inception while also serving as president of the Buffalo Jr. Sabres. He was elevated to general manager of LECOM Harborcenter in January 2019. In September of 2019, Adams was named the Sabres' vice president of business administration. In that role, he oversaw the day-to-day business operations of the team throughout the 2019-20 season.

Prior to his time with the Sabres and LECOM Harborcenter, Adams had a Hall-of-Fame playing career at Miami (OH) University and was a first-round pick of the Boston Bruins in the 1993 NHL Draft. Adams spent 11 seasons playing in the National Hockey League for the Toronto Maple Leafs, Columbus Blue Jackets, Florida Panthers, Carolina Hurricanes, Phoenix Coyotes and Chicago Blackhawks. He was an alternate captain on the Hurricanes team that captured the Stanley Cup in 2006.

Adams received his bachelor's degree in 1996 from Miami (OH) University and his master's degree in business administration from the University of Phoenix in 2014. As a player, he was very active with the NHLPA and, following his career, worked with O2K Worldwide Management Group in player development and player scouting.

The Buffalo Sabres named Jason Karmanos as the team's associate general manager on April 14, 2021.

In his new role, Karmanos will serve as the general manager of the AHL's Rochester Americans and will oversee the Sabres' scouting, player development and analytics departments.

A native of Orchard Lake, Michigan, Karmanos spent the past six seasons (2014-20) with the Pittsburgh Penguins, where he served as the assistant general manager for three seasons. He was the club's vice president of hockey operations prior to that.

In his roles with Pittsburgh, Karmanos spearheaded the revamping of the Penguins' use of hockey analytics to assist management in their decision-making process.

He was also a member of the Carolina Hurricanes' front office from 1998-2013 and served as an assistant general manager for 13 of those seasons.

Karmanos has been part of three Stanley Cup championships. He won with Carolina in 2006 and with Pittsburgh in 2016 and 2017.

Before becoming a hockey executive, Karmanos played four seasons (1992-1996) at Harvard. After graduation, Karmanos attended training camp with the Pittsburgh Penguins and started the 1996-97 season with the Raleigh IceCaps of the ECHL. His playing career was cut short just a couple months later due to an eye injury. Prior to joining for the Hurricanes, Karmanos spent two years working for the investment banking firm Robertson, Stephens and Company.

Ventura served as the Penguins' director of hockey research from 2017 to 2020 prior to being promoted to director of hockey operations and hockey research during the 2020 offseason. He joined the Penguins as a team consultant in 2015.

Ventura attended Carnegie Mellon University, where he earned a bachelor's in computational finance and statistics, a master's in statistics and a doctorate in statistics and served as an assistant coach for the men's hockey team.

BUFFALO SABRES RETIRED NUMBERS

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only seven numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on Oct. 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Martin (#7) and Robert (#14) joined Perreault in a ceremony to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on Nov. 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on Jan. 5, 1996. The Sabres retired two more numbers during the 2005-06 season. Right winger Danny Gare (#18) was honored on Nov. 22, 2005, while Pat LaFontaine's #16 was hoisted to the rafters on March 3, 2006. On Jan. 13, 2015, Dominik Hasek became the seventh player – and first goaltender – to have his number retired by the team.

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first ever draft choice and set the standard by which all future Sabres would be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star Games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number 11 in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, there will never be another.

Buffalo Sabres fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular-season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number 7's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Final appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals – one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season. Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't wearing a Sabres uniform. On Jan. 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the league's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds the Sabres' records for most goals (44) and points (74) by a rookie and his 21 career hat tricks are a franchise-high. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories. Martin passed away on March 13, 2011, and his life was celebrated in a public memorial service at HSBC Arena on March 24. The team honored his memory by painting the number seven on the ice behind each goal for the remainder of the regular season and playoffs.

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of game three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Final. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started with the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season. That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number 7 in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star Games.

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the intra-league draft in June 1972 from Pittsburgh. Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, NY Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates. Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular-season games plus 126 more in the postseason. Included in his playing days were eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star Games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

Danny Gare played his first game for the Sabres on Oct. 10, 1974 against Boston and scored just 18 seconds into his first NHL shift. He finished his rookie season with 62 points (31+31) and contributed 13 points (7+6) in the Sabres' run to the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. Gare followed up his strong rookie campaign with his first of two 50-goal seasons in 1975-76, when he netted 50 goals and 23 assists in 79 games and chipped in two game-winning goals in the playoffs. That season, Gare recorded three of his 10 career hat tricks as a Sabre. In 1979-80, he scored a career-high 56 goals, including a club-record 11 game-winners. Rick Martin is the only other Sabre to have two 50-goal seasons. With 267 goals as a Sabre, Gare holds the record for goals by a Sabres right wing. He finished his Sabres career with 500 points. Gare's career as a Sabre came to an end on Dec. 2, 1981 when he was traded to the Detroit Red Wings. He spent his final NHL season in Edmonton in 1986-87. The Nelson, British Columbia, native finished his career with 685 points (354+331) and was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 1994.

Pat LaFontaine enjoyed an illustrious 15-year career before retiring from the NHL in 1998 as the second-highest scoring American-born player with 468 goals and 1,013 points. He was born in St. Louis, but grew up in the suburbs of Detroit, and is still considered one of the game's best playmakers, fastest skaters, and most humble superstars. A member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto, LaFontaine began his career in 1983-84 with the New York Islanders. He had a career year for Buffalo in 1992-93 when he set Sabres records for points (148) and assists (95) in a season. After being sidelined by a serious knee injury for most of the 1993-94 season, he returned as team captain in 1994-95 and was awarded the Bill Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to hockey. LaFontaine was with the Sabres from 1991-1997, finishing with 385 points (158+227) in 268 games. He completed the "Empire State Hat Trick" by playing for all three NHL organizations within New York State when he was traded to the Rangers in 1997. He remained one of the Rangers' leading scorers until injuries forced him to prematurely retire on Aug. 11, 1998.

Originally acquired by the Sabres from the Chicago Blackhawks on Aug. 7, 1992, Dominik Hasek remains one of the most decorated goaltenders in team and league history, appearing in a total of 491 games for the Blue & Gold during a span of nine seasons from 1992-2001. Hasek appeared in a career-high 72 games for the club in the 1997-98 season, setting a team record with 13 shutouts, only to follow that up with a career-best 1.87 goals-against average, .937 save percentage and a Stanley Cup Final berth in 1998-99. While backstopping the Sabres, he became the first goaltender in NHL history to win the Hart Trophy twice (1997 & 1998), while also capturing six Vezina Trophies (1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 1999 & 2001) as well as the William M. Jennings Trophy (1994 & 2001) and the Lester B. Pearson Award (1997 & 1998) twice each. By the end of his time in Buffalo, Hasek held every meaningful franchise goaltending record and still owns the team's career and single-season records (all from 1998-99) for shutouts (55 career/13 single-season), save percentage (.926/.937) and goals-against average (2.22/1.87).

BUFFALO SABRES ALUMNI PLAZA | KEYBANK CENTER

On October 12, 2012, the Buffalo Sabres unveiled the newly named 'Alumni Plaza' outside the team's arena, designed to honor all former members of the team. As part of the plaza's transformation, the six concrete columns that support a pedestrian walkway above the plaza were surrounded by bricks and mortar. Every player ever to play a game for the franchise is commemorated with a plaque on those bricks, detailing his first game with the Sabres.

Also unveiled that day was the centerpiece of Alumni Plaza: a cast in bronze statue depicting the French Connection. Composed of center Gilbert Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert, the French Connection is widely considered to be one of the greatest forward lines in NHL history and remains the most celebrated offensive unit in Buffalo Sabres history. The trio, all of whom were French-Canadian, was dubbed 'The French Connection' – after the 1971 film of the same name – and played together in Buffalo from the team's acquisition of Robert on March 4, 1972 until his departure on October 5, 1979.

Between them, the members of The French Connection played 2,396 games for the Sabres, scoring 1,116 goals and registering 2,573 total points. During their tenure in Buffalo, the three were honored with a combined 15 NHL All-Star Game appearances and seven selections to the First and Second NHL All-Star Teams. All three are members of the Sabres Hall of Fame and have had their numbers officially retired from use by the Sabres. Perreault, the franchise's first ever draft pick, served as the team's captain for five seasons and retired after 17 NHL seasons – all with the Sabres.

Inspiration for the statue came from a photograph taken during a playoff game at Memorial Auditorium on April 27, 1975 which features all three members of The French Connection. The photograph was taken by award-winning photographer Ron Moscati. During the game in which the photograph was taken, all three members of the French Connection scored a goal to lead the Sabres to a playoff win against the Montreal Canadiens.

To design and construct the statue, the Sabres commissioned distinguished American sculptor Jerry McKenna. McKenna is well known for his sports statues, and was named the 2003 'Sports Sculptor of the Year' by the All-American Football Foundation. A specially-designed pedestal, constructed by HHL Architects of Buffalo, features an integrated lighting system and an illuminated informational panel which provides a base for the statue.

UNIFORM 1970 TO 2020

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier. The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years.

The crest which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October 1970 until April 1996 reflected the team's name. Along with the buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier, 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders.

While the next season was Buffalo's 10th anniversary campaign, a patch honoring that winter's Olympic Games in Lake Placid, New York, was the notable change on the uniforms. The 1980 Winter Olympics is where the legendary "Miracle on Ice" would take place, and where the Sabres held their 1980 training camp. It was probably fitting that 10 years later, a Buffalo Sabres' 20th anniversary logo patch was embroidered on the front right shoulder of the players' uniforms for 1989-90. Two years later, the Sabres joined the other NHL teams in wearing a commemorative patch for the league's 75th anniversary, and fans even had the opportunity to see it on both the home and road jerseys as Buffalo joined 15 other teams in the season-long celebration. For the second half of that season, the Sabres wore their road jerseys at home and donned the home jerseys for away games, to complement the "original six" teams who wore "throwback jerseys." A Stanley Cup centennial patch appeared on the 1992-93 uniforms. Buffalo would again recognize a significant anniversary with a special 25th anniversary logo, which was designed for the team's 1994-95 campaign. Players wore the fifth patch in seven years on the team's sweaters in 1995-96 (bearing jersey number one), remembering former NHL goalie Roger Crozier, who played six of his 14 seasons in the league in Buffalo.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jerseys. In their first season in the new uniforms, the Sabres honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

On Nov. 22, 2000, the Sabres unveiled the team's first-ever alternate jersey against the Philadelphia Flyers. The jersey paid tribute to the team's original sweater, while also incorporating colors and elements from the 1996 design. The organization chose from more than 50 different concepts and developed an homage to the original blue and gold crest -- featuring the traditional circle and crossed Sabres logo -- adorned on a red-based jersey, trimmed in the team's black and silver of the 1990s. The word "BUFFALO" appeared on the lower trim to signify the team's proud attachment to its hometown. The third jersey also featured the current Sabres white buffalo-head logo, which appeared on the shoulders. Though it didn't represent a change to their official uniform scheme, the Sabres' next alternate jersey appeared when the team donned its original blue and yellow colors with the former logo and design for the season finale, April 4, 2003, against New Jersey.

Following the tragic events in Manhattan on Sept. 11, 2001, the Sabres took on the Rangers in New York's regular-season home opener at Madison Square Garden as the nation healed. As a sign of solidarity, the Sabres wore a modified version of their black, white and red jerseys with the Rangers' diagonal "New York" script replacing the buffalo head across the front. Both teams' jerseys were auctioned off, raising $215,000 for the Twin Towers Fund.

The Sabres' next uniform scheme, unveiled on September 16, 2006, took its inspiration from the original Sabres uniform (1970-1996) and the team's second uniform (1996-2005). The team returned to a blue and gold color scheme with the franchise's original colors altered to a deeper navy blue and richer gold. Silver accents and a revised "B-Sabre" logo were carried over from the team's second uniform. Unique in the NHL, the new uniforms had player numbers on the front of the jersey. Buffalo also debuted a new alternate uniform that updated the original blue uniform from 1970 by adding the player number on the front to match the newly designed uniforms. The alternate jersey was only worn for the 2006-07 season.

For the Winter Classic game on Jan. 1, 2008, the Sabres wore a modified version of the team's original white jerseys. This was the only time the jersey was worn that season.

The Sabres introduced a new third jersey in 2008-09 that incorporated design elements from the original uniforms while linking elements from the current jerseys. The team's original road uniform (1970-1996) was updated to incorporate the team's darker navy blue and rich gold colors, along with silver accents on the stripes to give dimension to the original design. The player numbers appeared on the front of the uniform and a neck tie was incorporated as a nod to the team's original uniform. The original crossed Sabres logo also featured silver accents to give a beveled look to the team's original logo. The jersey was designed to incorporate the design elements of the Reebok EDGE uniform system.

During the 2010-11 season, the Sabres adopted a uniform at home and on the road that recalled elements of the first uniform in franchise history. At home, the Sabres utilized the team's previous third jersey. On the road, they donned a white jersey that incorporates the same accent elements of the updated home jersey. The team also unveiled an all-new 40th anniversary uniform. This classically designed uniform was a tribute to not only the history of Buffalo hockey, but also to early NHL jersey designs of the past. The 40th anniversary alternate jersey was worn 12 times at HSBC Arena during the 2010-11 season and continued to serve as the team's alternate jersey in 2011-12.

The Sabres unveiled another new alternate jersey prior to the 2013-14 season that the team would wear for two seasons. Challenged by Sabres ownership to use gold as the primary jersey color for the first time in team history, the Sabres' creative team -- in collaboration with Reebok -- created a two-tone jersey with gold as the primary color on the front and navy blue on the back. A newly designed Buffalo Sabres wordmark appeared on the players' pant leg as well as just below the neckline on the main jersey, right above the Sabres' traditional crest on the front of the jersey. Additionally, a unique font and number art were designed by Reebok and were inspired by the tips of actual sabres. The all-new font was used for the jersey numbers as well as players' names. Captain and alternate captain insignia incorporated crossed sabres as design elements and the patches were moved from the traditional spot on the chest to the shoulder of the jersey.

The team saw minor changes to both its home and road jerseys when the NHL partnered with adidas before the 2017-18 season to unveil new authentic jerseys for all 31 NHL teams utilizing the company's ADIZERO technology and design elements. While each Sabres jersey retained its general appearance, the most significant changes were the removal of the silver piping and gray accents on the sides of the jerseys.

UNIFORM 1970 TO 2021

The Sabres appeared in their second Winter Classic in on Jan. 1, 2018, the 10-year anniversary of the inaugural game in Buffalo. To commemorate the occasion, the team wore a white jersey that combined design concepts from the franchise's early years with modifications of the team's current logo and elements from the team's 40th anniversary jersey. In addition to minor illustration adjustments to the logo's buffalo and swords, the initials "NY" were added as a marker of the intrastate matchup. The crest and the numbers on the official game jerseys were executed in felt and faux leather materials as a nod to historical "hockey sweater" material construction.

In addition to the crest, the uniform featured three secondary marks: a newly designed shoulder patch that abstracted the buffalo from the crest and filled it with the team's name; a pair of crossed swords on the pants, also abstracted from the crest; and the Buffalo script wordmark from team's 40th anniversary jersey, now located on the helmet. Following the Winter Classic, the team wore a Winter Classic-style jersey with minor modifications to the one worn at the outdoor game as an alternate jersey for three home games in 2018.

In August 2019, the team unveiled a new alternate jersey to be worn for the team's "Golden Season" 50th anniversary celebration in 2019-20. The jersey was made up of a white base adorned with the iconic Sabres crest in fluorescent gold and navy blue. In homage to the team's history, the jersey included five stripes representing each of the franchise's decades on both sleeves and the jersey's bottom, as well as an inner neckline featuring logos from throughout the team's history.

The Golden Season alternate jersey was only part of the team's 2019 nod toward the past – the Sabres also announced that the 2019-20 season would be the final time the team would wear their navy uniforms, as the team would return to royal blue as its primary color in 2020-21. Unveiled in August 2020, the team's current royal blue, gold, and white uniform marks a return to the franchise's original look with only minor changes made to the classic jerseys; most notably, the striping on the blue jersey has been altered to introduce white piping on top of the original gold stripes. The crest has also been slightly simplified from the original, with silver accents removed to create a sleek modern appeal. Details first seen in the 50th season jersey crest have been carried over to this uniform system, most notably the stitching pattern on the buffalo.

The 2020-21 season featured yet another homage to the team's history: As part of the NHL's Reverse Retro campaign, the Sabres unveiled an alternate jersey in November 2020 modeled after the team's first-ever alternate sweater. The updated design recolored the original alternate, worn from 2000-01 through 2005-06, to match the team's current royal blue and gold color scheme.

HISTORY OF THE AFFILIATION

Buffalo Sabres

HISTORY OF THE AFFILIATION

After three seasons with the Portland Pirates, the Buffalo Sabres renewed their affiliation with the Rochester Americans before the 2011-12 season. The 2021-22 season will mark the 40th season of affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks, one of the longest relationships between an NHL team and its AHL affiliate.

The Amerks are entering their historic 66th season in the American Hockey League and the team will once again be an essential pipeline for future Sabres stars.

Since the long-anticipated reunion of the two organizations, the Amerks have had a total of seven first-round picks of the Sabres play at least one game in Rochester. Jack Quinn, Buffalo's eighth overall pick in 2020, earned an early audition with the Amerks during the 2020-21 season, tying for third among team rookies with nine points (2+7) in 15 games.

Other notable first-rounders who spent time in Rochester include the duo of Mikhail Grigorenko and Zemgus Girgensons, who were selected 12th and 14th overall, respectively, in the 2012 NHL Entry Draft. Defenseman Mark Pysyk, Buffalo's first-round pick in 2010, played parts of four seasons in Rochester while Sam Reinhart, the team's second overall pick in 2014, joined the Amerks for a brief three-game stint at the end of the 2014-15 campaign. Highly touted forward Alexander Nylander spent the three seasons with the Amerks since being drafted eighth overall in 2016, making his NHL debut during the 2016-17 campaign and scoring his first NHL goal in Buffalo's final regular-season game in 2017-18. After spending his entire rookie campaign with the Sabres, Casey Mittelstadt joined the Amerks midway through the 2019-20 season. Buffalo's eighth overall pick in 2017 made an immediate impact, finishing the season with 25 points (9+16) in 36 games while also appearing in 31 contests with the Sabres.

It was during the 1979-80 campaign that the two organizations first formed a professional hockey partnership. Billy Inglis was the first head coach of the Amerks during the affiliation. Future coaches would include Mike Keenan, Joe Crozier, Jim Schoenfeld, Don Lever, John Van Boxmeer, John Tortorella, Brian McCutcheon and Randy Cunneynworth. Both Keenan (New York Rangers, 1994) and Tortorella (Tampa Bay Lightning, 2004) went on to coach NHL teams to Stanley Cup victories.

In 39 years of affiliation, the Amerks have compiled a record of 1,443-1,174-287-39 in 2,943 regular-season games and captured nine regular-season titles. During that period, the Amerks have captured three Calder Cup Championships (1983, 1987 and 1996) and have advanced to the Calder Cup Finals six times.

The Sabres and Pirates enjoyed a successful three-year affiliation (2008-09-2010-11), with the Pirates compiling a 131-79-16-13 overall record and a first-place finish in the Atlantic Division in 2010-11. During the three-year span, three Pirates players were named Dudley "Red" Garrett Memorial Award winners, an award given to the AHL's most outstanding rookie: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11).

Besides the Sabres, the Amerks have been affiliated with the Montreal Canadiens, Toronto Maple Leafs, Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks and Florida Panthers.

SETH APPERT | Head Coach

Seth Appert enters his second season as head coach of the Rochester Americans in 2021-22 after being named to the position on August 18, 2020.

In his first campaign behind the Amerks bench, he guided the team to an 11-15-2-1 record over a condensed 29-game season in 2020-21. Despite the shortened season, however, player development was still very much a priority for Appert and his staff as evidenced by more than a dozen players earning recalls to the parent Buffalo Sabres, including Appert himself at one point. Excluding Andrew Oglevie and Casey Fitzgerald, who were recalled to the team's taxi squad but never saw any game action, nine made their Sabres debuts and five made their National Hockey League debuts.

Rochester also had five different goaltenders dress during the 2020-21 season, the most since the club used seven in 2014-15. All three goaltenders to play with both Rochester and Buffalo earned a win with each club, with both Ukko-Pekka Luukkonen and Michael Houser picking up their first NHL victories, respectively.

The 33rd head coach in the 65-year history of the franchise, Appert has a long history of developing players at all levels. Prior to joining the Amerks, he spent three years (2017-2020) alternating the head coaching duties between the Under-18 and Under-17 teams at USA Hockey's National Team Development Program (NTDP).

With the NTDP, Appert oversaw a development model that produced an NHL-record 17 draft picks in the 2019 NHL Draft, including eight that were selected in the first round. Among those included the highly touted forward Jack Hughes, who was chosen first overall by the New Jersey Devils.

During his first season with the NTDP in 2017-18, Appert guided the Under-18 Team to a gold medal at the Five Nations Tournament while also helping Team USA to an Eastern Conference-best 41-18-0-1 record during the regular season, the team's best finish since joining the United States Hockey League prior to the 2009-10 campaign. Team USA, which featured incoming defenseman and former Buffalo Sabres' second-round pick Mattias Samuelsson, led the USHL in wins (41) and tied for second in overall points (83) behind only the Waterloo Black Hawks. In 2018, Appert led the U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team to a silver medal at the IIHF Under-18 World Junior Championship and gold at the same tournament the year before as an assistant coach in 2017. His international resume also includes back-to-back years as an assistant coach with the U.S. National Team, winning a bronze medal at the Men's World Championship in 2018.

Prior to joining USA Hockey, the Cottage Grove, Minn., native spent 20 years in the NCAA Division I collegiate coaching ranks, including 11 seasons as head coach of the men's program at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (RPI). The Engineers advanced to the postseason each year under Appert, who guided the team to an appearance in the 2011 NCAA Tournament following a 20-win season before leading RPI to its best finish in more than two decades just two years later with a second-place finish in the ECAC standings to conclude the 2012-13 campaign. The first two seasons of Appert's tenure at RPI were highlighted by back-to-back titles in the Governor's Cup Tournament – the program's first titles of any kind since 1998 – in addition to earning points against six nationally-ranked opponents.

He departed RPI following the 2016-17 season with a 152-221-48 regular-season record.

Appert, who formerly served as president of the American Hockey Coaches Association, also spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Denver, where he helped the Pioneers to a pair of NCAA National Championships as well as three WCHA playoff championships and two WCHA regular-season titles. The Pioneers also averaged more than 23 wins per season with Appert behind the bench.

Over his 20 years at the collegiate level, Appert has aided in the development of 13 All-Americans, 37 all-league selections, four Players of the Year, four Hobey Baker Finalists and at least 23 players who have graduated to the NHL, including former Amerks Jerry D'Amigo, Jason Kasdorf and Erik Burgdoerfer.

D'Amigo played one season under Appert at RPI in 2009-10, ranking fifth in the nation in points per game while leading the team in game-winning goals. In his lone season at RPI, D'Amigo was named the ECAC Rookie of the Year and was named to the ECAC All-Rookie Team. Kasdorf, meanwhile, played four years under Appert at RPI, earning ECAC Rookie of the Year and All-ECAC Second Team honors as a freshman during the 2012-13 season. Both he and Burgdoerfer would make their NHL debuts with the Buffalo Sabres.

Appert is a product of the NCAA himself, having been a four-year letter-winner as a goaltender at Ferris State University from 1992-96.

He owns a Bachelor's degree in Public Relations from Ferris State and earned his Master's degree in Management from the University of Denver in 1999. Appert and his wife, Jill, have two daughters, Addi and Campbell.

MICHAEL PECA | Assistant Coach

Michael Peca enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Rochester Americans after being named to the position on August 3, 2021.

Peca spent the 2020-21 season as a player development coach with the Washington Capitals, working primarily with the players on the taxi squad.

Prior to joining Washington, Peca served as general manager and director of hockey operations for the Buffalo Jr. Sabres of the Ontario Junior Hockey League for five years following two seasons as the team's head coach from 2012-2014. He posted a 69-28-11 combined record in 108 games, leading Buffalo to back-to-back West Division titles and consecutive playoff appearances while also earning OJHL Coach of the Year honors for the 2012-13 season.

As a player, Peca's professional playing career spanned 14 seasons and 864 games in the National Hockey League with the Vancouver Canucks, Buffalo Sabres, New York Islanders, Edmonton Oilers, Toronto Maple Leafs and Columbus Blue Jackets. A four-time 20-goal scorer, he recorded 465 points (176+289) and added 34 points (15+19) in 97 playoff contests while twice guiding his team to the Stanley Cup Final, including in 1999 as captain of the Sabres.

The Toronto, Ontario, native is also a two-time winner of the Frank J. Selke Trophy, given annually "to the forward who best excels in the defensive aspects of the game." He was first awarded the honor following the 1996-97 season, becoming the first Sabres forward since Craig Ramsay in 1984-85 to win the award. He was the recipient again just five years later in 2001-02 as a member of the Islanders.

Originally a second-round selection (40th overall) of the Vancouver Canucks in the 1992 NHL Draft, Peca spent the majority of his 14-year career with the Sabres, during which he scored 96 goals and notched 121 assists for 217 points over 363 games from 1995-2000. His tenure in Buffalo was highlighted by three 20-goal seasons, including a career-best 27-goal campaign in 1998-99, and four straight playoff appearances between 1997-2000.

He made a return visit to the Stanley Cup Final in 2006 with Edmonton before retiring following the 2008-09 season.

Peca also played parts of two seasons (1992-93, 1994-95) in the American Hockey League with the Hamilton Canucks and Syracuse Crunch, totaling 43 points (16+27) in 44 games.

Internationally, Peca is a two-time gold medal-winner with Team Canada. After leading the Canadians to gold at the 1994 IIHF World Junior Championship, he won his second gold medal at the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City. He also represented Canada at the 2001 IIHF World Championship, serving as team captain.

He resides in Buffalo with his wife, Kristin, and their two children, Trevor (21) and Emily (18).

MIKE WEBER | Assistant Coach

Mike Weber enters his second season as an assistant coach with the Rochester Americans in 2021-22 after being named to the position on September 17, 2020.

Prior to joining the Amerks, Weber spent the previous two and a half years as an assistant coach with the Windsor Spitfires of the Ontario Hockey League. In his final season with Windsor, Weber guided the Spitfires to a third-place finish in the OHL's West Division with a 34-20-8-0 overall record and what would have been their fifth straight playoff appearance prior to the cancellation of the season due to COVID-19.

A native of Pittsburgh, Penn., Weber transitioned into coaching with Windsor midway through the 2017-18 season following an 11-year playing career as a defenseman. A second-round pick (57th overall) of the Sabres in 2006, Weber recorded 53 points (9+44) and 437 penalty minutes while playing all but 10 of his 351 NHL games for Buffalo prior to a brief stint with the Washington Capitals.

Weber also totaled 51 points (8+43) in 237 career AHL games, most recently serving as team captain of the Iowa Wild in 2016-17. He made his pro debut with the Amerks in 2007-08, his lone season in Rochester, and would spend a majority of the following two seasons with the Portland Pirates, leading the team to a playoff appearance in 2010 after a career-high 21 points during the regular season.

He was rewarded with a trip to the AHL All-Star Classic in 2010 before going to spend the next six full seasons in the NHL.

He and his wife, Janine, are the parents to three sons: Emerson (8), JJ (5) and Harrison (3).

RICK JEANNERET | PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Currently the longest-tenured broadcaster in hockey, Rick Jeanneret will retire following his 51st year behind the microphone calling the action for Buffalo Sabres games. Jeanneret was the 2012 recipient of the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award – the most prestigious award given to hockey broadcasters – and was formally recognized by the Hockey Hall of Fame in November 2012. He was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 2011 and was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in fall 2012.

With his vast knowledge of the game and his unwavering enthusiasm for hockey, Jeanneret's distinct voice has been synonymous with the Buffalo Sabres for over half a century. He began his prolific career with the Sabres in the 1971-72 season as the club's radio play-by-play announcer and served primarily in that role until 1995, when he began calling the action for the team's televised games as well. His memorable calls and player nicknames have become forever linked with Sabres history for generations of fans.

Jeanneret's career officially began in 1963, when the St. Catharines, Ontario native filled in for the regular announcer at a Niagara Falls Flyers (Junior A) game. He went on to become the color analyst for one season before moving to the play-by-play position in 1965.

Jeanneret currently resides in Niagara Falls, Ontario with his wife, Sandra. Rick has two sons, Mark and Chris.

DAN DUNLEAVY | PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER/REPORTER

Prior to joining the Sabres broadcast team in 2013, Dan Dunleavy spent 19 years at Sportsnet Radio and The Fan 590 Toronto. In addition to filling in as a play-by-play voice for the Sabres in the 2010-11 season, Dunleavy's experience includes nine years of play-by-play for the IIHF World Junior Hockey Championship, the 2008 IIHF World Hockey Championship in Halifax and Quebec City, Men's and Women's Hockey at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics, the OHL's Mississauga Majors, and Canadian Hockey League and American Hockey League games on Rogers Sportsnet.

The Toronto native has also called soccer and lacrosse games, serving as the play-by-play voice for the National Lacrosse League's Toronto Rock on The Fan 590 and the radio and television play-by-play voice for Toronto FC on Sportsnet TV/Radio and TSN 1050 Radio.

Dunleavy currently resides in Eden, Ontario with his wife, Brenda.

ROB RAY | COLOR ANALYST

Rob Ray, who begins his 18th season on Buffalo Sabres broadcasts, will be entering his tenth season as the full-time color analyst for all Sabres games this season. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray has served as a color analyst and the "between-the-benches" reporter for the past 17 years. In his role as color analyst, Ray remains at ice level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Ray's hockey expertise stems from his 16-year NHL career as a right wing, 14 seasons of which were spent with the Sabres. Known for his toughness on the ice, Ray ranks sixth in NHL history for career penalty minutes (3,207) and holds the Sabres' team record in the same category with 3,189 penalty minutes. Ray played in 900 total NHL games during his career and 889 games with the Sabres, the fourth-most in franchise history.

Despite being one of the game's toughest enforcers, Ray was also awarded the NHL's King Clancy Memorial Award in 1999 for his leadership and humanitarianism. He remains as one of the Sabres' most active alumni, currently serving as president of the Sabres Alumni Association. Ray and his wife, Julianne, live in East Amherst, New York with their son, Rob Jr., and their daughter, Jordan.

BRIAN DUFF | STUDIO HOST

Entering his 11th season with the Buffalo Sabres, studio host Brian Duff has nearly 30 years of experience in the broadcasting industry, with the majority of it devoted to covering the NHL.

An original member of NHL Network at the time of its launch in the United States in 2007, Duff served as the lead host for the network's signature events, including the Stanley Cup Final, the NHL All-Star Game and the NHL Draft.

Duff's tenure with the Sabres began on a part-time basis in 2011-12, when he hosted many of the team's road games while also completing his fifth season at NHL Network. Outside of his game night duties on MSG, Duff is also a regular content contributor to Sabres.com and has been a part of multiple New York Emmy Award wins as a member of the production team responsible for series such as Beyond Blue & Gold.

A native of Whitby, Ontario, Duff served as a broadcast host on radio and/or television for the Edmonton Oilers, Ottawa Senators and Toronto Maple Leafs between 1994 and 2007. He is also an avid fan of lacrosse and has done play-by-play and commentary for the National Lacrosse League, including the league's championship games in 2010, 2011, 2016 and 2017.

In addition to his role on the Sabres' broadcast, Duff is a co-host of The Instigators with Martin Biron.

MARTY BIRON | STUDIO ANALYST

Martin Biron is in his fifth season as the studio analyst for the Buffalo Sabres after being named to the position in August 2017. His primary role is to serve as an analyst alongside Brian Duff during the pregame, intermission and postgame portions of the broadcast. Biron will also provide in-game analysis at select times both at ice level and in the broadcast booth.

Biron was the Sabres' first-round pick in the 1995 NHL Draft and went on to rank fourth in franchise history among goaltenders with 300 games played in his nine seasons with the club. In 2007, he was traded to the Philadelphia Flyers and led the team to the 2008 Eastern Conference Final. Following his time in Philadelphia, Biron went on to spend time with the Islanders and Rangers before retiring from the NHL in October 2013.

In addition to his role on the Sabres' broadcast, Biron is a co-host to The Instigators with Brian Duff. He also assists with the goaltending program for the Academy of Hockey.
